

1D SBCCC 800.5 Courses Listed in High School to Community College Articulation Agreements

- (a) The North Carolina High School to Community College Articulation Agreement is an agreement between the North Carolina Department of Public Instruction and the North Carolina Community College System. The articulation agreement ensures that when a student is proficient in a high school course included in the agreement, the student can receive college credit for that course at any North Carolina community college.
- (b) Colleges shall award credit to students who have completed a high school course and met the criteria as outlined in the High School to Community College Articulation Agreement.
- (c) A college may award credit for successful completion of other high school courses consistent with any local high school to community college articulation agreements entered into by the college and an education entity providing secondary education.
